

<https://www.howardcountymd.gov/HallofFame>

2007

Bill McCormack Jr.- In 1974 Bill thought that ?in the sports world, girls were treated as second class citizens? so he volunteered to coach in the Soccer Association of Columbia. Since then, during 67 seasons (34 years), he's coached more than 500 girls and his Green Machine team has won 11 league championships. But Bill always stresses that it's not the number of wins that should measure success, but how his players play the game. To provide more opportunities for girls, Bill created a clinic to focus on skill development. He also reorganized the recreational league into a tiered structure. In 1996 he was the recipient of the Jack and Ellie Boussy Award for outstanding service to youth soccer. Bill has also coached boys teams in the Columbia Basketball Association for 23 years.